Our Student Testimonials

When I first came, I couldn't speak any English at all. You can never guess how difficult it was. Soon after, I was recommended to study at Bloomsbury which was one of the best decisions I have made in my life.

After nearly a year I took the IELTS exam and got the mark I required which was 7.5. Now I'm working as a surgeon and I believe that Bloomsbury has considerably contributed to my career in the UK.

The teachers I had were amazing. The things they taught me are facilitating my professional life. I am really grateful to all of you.

General English

A perfect course for students who wish to improve their ability to communicate with people in everyday situations. Lessons are planned with individual students' needs in mind and focus on all aspects of language including vocabulary, grammar, pronunciation, reading, writing, speaking and listening. There is a strong focus on fluency and effective communication in real-life situations.

Business English

With English as the global language of choice for all aspects of business, many corporations expect their employees to use spoken and written English to communicate effectively at work. In our Business English classes, you will learn how to express yourself more fluently and confidently when communicating with clients and colleagues at different levels and in various work situations, for example writing reports, presentation skills and participating in meetings.

Exam Preparation

At Bloomsbury International we offer preparation classes for the IELTS, TOEIC, TOEFL, Cambridge exams (KET, PET, FCE, CAE, CPE) and Trinity GESE and ISE. Lessons are based on learners' needs, ensuring that you improve your English and practise exam skills through a variety of materials including past exam papers. Your teachers will also organise mock exams in order to enhance your ability to achieve the best possible result and thus enhance your future work and study opportunities.

Communication Skills

Learn how to use appropriate styles of the English language to become better able to express yourself clearly in speaking and writing in different situations. Focus on British Culture and colloquialisms, pronunciation, news discussions, debates, different levels of language formality, functional language, writing trends and more.

English for Specific Purposes

Improve your English language skills in a specific area, such as law, finance, technology, medicine, travel, aviation, teaching, accent softening and personnel/human resources.

School/University Preparation

Choose this option if you are considering studying at a university or a high school in an English speaking country.

One to One and Closed Groups

Design a programme to suit your group's requirements including tuition, accommodation, social activities and more.

Academic Professional Development

New for 2015, this course provides the opportunity to visit multinational companies while studying a combination course of General English, Exam preparation and Business English.

English Plus

Improve your English language skills while enjoying another hobby, including football, music, sports, drama and many more.

Young Learners Programme

An ideal course for young learners who would like to improve their English language skills while making friends from different countries and having fun in London.

Teacher Training - Refresher Course

Refresh your practical use of the language along with the teaching skills and knowledge of current methodologies and trends in the EFL world.

Your Progress

At Bloomsbury International, we create a positive learning environment to give our students the best possible opportunity to maximise their progress. You will be given a personal study plan, as well as individual attention and support throughout your course. Your progress will be monitored through regular class tests and tutorials with teachers who will offer you advice to ensure that you progress rapidly and achieve your learning objectives.

Your Classes

Our teachers design lessons with individual students' needs in mind, and use a variety of resources and teaching methods to cater for different learning styles, such as visual, auditory and kinaesthetic. The lessons are largely based on a communicative approach and blended learning to maximise your study experience and enhance your ability to become an independent learner who can communicate effectively in different life situations.

Your Teachers

Our qualified, carefully selected and dedicated teachers all hold internationally recognised English language teaching qualifications and you will find them passionate, enthusiastic and committed to their students' learning. Inspectors have commented on the excellence of teaching at Bloomsbury International.

Your Life at Bloomsbury

We like to make sure that all our students have the best possible experience during their time at Bloomsbury International. We have a truly international atmosphere with more than 2,000 students from over 50 different countries choosing to study at Bloomsbury International every year, so you will have the opportunity to make new friends whether in your class, during our exciting social programme activities, in the Bloomsbury café or in one of our Bloomsbury student residences.
